COMBINED RACE PURSES $3,225

This Year's Program Will be Best
Ever Offered Because Over 50
Horses are on Grounds

8 TO START IN THE 2:15 PACE

Usual Number of Concessions is on
The Grounds—Many People
Visit Place Sunday

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the Rush county fair tomorrow. The track is in fine shape and the opening day's races promises to be the best of the entire week. Two events are on the program—the 2:15 pace, purse $500 and the Merchants' Road trot for a purse of $115.

With the best collection of horses ever on the grounds the racing promises to be the best ever witnessed. The large barn is filled and additional space was needed for the horses. Over 50 head of horses are quartered at the fair grounds and more are to come. The usual Sunday crowd visited the fair grounds and everyone was of the opinion that this year's fair would be the best in years.

The usual number of concessions were on the grounds yesterday and more were enroute today. The I. & C. handled a large crowd to and from the grounds. The traction line will have regular service to the fair Tuesday.

The fair association is relying on the race program to attract the lovers of fast horses. No effort has been spared to give the people the best program possible and with the class of horses stabled at the fair grounds there is little doubt as to the racing end of the fair. The races Tuesday will start at 2 o'clock. The events on other days will start at 1:30 o'clock. E. A. Kneisley of Kokomo will act as starter. Mr. Kneisley acted in this capacity last year and gave complete satisfaction.

The 2:15 pace, the first race on Tuesday's program has eighteen entries with possibly eighteen starters. This is one of the stake races with the purse at $500. Last year this race was one of the best of the entire week, as every heat was a race and the money was not decided until the last heat. The point system will be used this year as last year. A field of eight starters is a little bulky for the small track but can be handled, as was demonstrated last year.

The 2:15 pace will bring out a field of classy horses. The horses entered are not all unknown to the followers of the game here. Many of the horses were here last year and a majority have been on this circuit this year.

The Merchants' road trot, for local horses, is attracting wide attention. The purse was sweetened by the merchants and is now worth $115. This is the largest sum ever offered here for a road race. Up until noon today five horses had been entered and it was likely that a total of seven starters would go under the wire.

W. H. Cleveland and his ostrich arrived at the grounds yesterday. The big bird attracted considerable attention. The ostrich will race with a horse and automobile on Wednesday afternoon. The bird is said to possess remarkable speed and week before last at the Columbus track went a half mile in 1:03 1/2.

In addition to the regular race program the fair association has added two running races. The first of these will be staged on Wednesday.

DIES WHILE ON VISIT HERE

Carl Holloway, 40, Expires Suddenly Sunday at Uncle's Home

Carl Holloway, 40 years old, of Charleston, W. Va., died suddenly of heart disease Sunday night at 10:30 o'clock at the home of his uncle, Edward Foster in Glenwood where he was visiting. Mr. Holloway was stricken shortly after retiring for the night and died before medical attention could reach his side. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Holloway of Anderson, Ind. The funeral arrangements have not been made, pending the arrival of his parents.

NEW PROBLEM IN PAVING HAS ARISEN

High Tension Poles of I. & C. Traction Line Must be Moved in First Street

FROM PEARL STREET WEST

A new difficulty has developed in the West First street paving. This is the moving of the high tension poles of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company from Pearl street west to the Big Four railway. Under the plans for the street paving the street is to be thirty feet wide from Pearl street to the Big Four and if this is carried out the poles would be in the street.

These poles are used by the traction line to carry the wires supplying the "juice" to the Shelbyville division. It will be necessary to move the poles back of the curb. It is understood that the property owners object to having the poles on their property, but as it is against the law to have them in the street there remains little else to do.

The property owners overlooked the time to remonstrate against the placing of the poles inside the curb line and the city is going ahead on the theory that they have the right to order the poles placed there. The I. & C. is ready to move the poles but is awaiting some order from the council. The county commissioners have ordered the I. & C. to make the change and this is expected to end the matter as far as the city is concerned.

U. S. RECRUITING OFFICE OPENED

Two Privates of United States Army Are at Fair Grounds Ready to Get Enlistments.

HAVE FULL FIELD EQUIPMENT

The United States army has opened a recruiting station at the fair ground and it is hoped to have several Rush county boys enlist before the week is over. The office at the fair grounds is in charge of Private Sampson High, assisted by Private Claude D. Polmateer. The tent is located just across from the dance hall.

The men have a full field equipment with them and the exhibit is open to the public. At this time the government is offering special inducements for all men to learn trades, such as mechanical and electrical engineering and clerical work. The recruiting officers are prepared to give all applicants an examination and will pay the expenses to Indianapolis.

ECONOMIES ARE BEING PRACTICED

Newspaper Publishers are Cutting Down Lists to Meet Shortage in Print Paper

REPUBLICAN TAKES STEP

Unnecessary Exchanges and Complimentaries are Cut Off—Policy of Other Papers

Because of the shortage in news print paper newspaper publishers all over the United States are practicing all the economies possible to reduce the consumption in paper so that consumption will not be greater than the present production.

In accordance with this rule, the Daily Republican is today cutting from its mailing list all unnecessary exchanges and complimentaries. This will become effective tomorrow.

The board of directors and paper committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' association met in New York last week and decided on a policy of economy in regard to the consumption of news print paper. A telegram was sent to all newspapers in the association, which includes several hundred of the most important newspapers of the country, calling attention to the fact that the production of news print is at its maximum and that there is no surplus stock on hand.

The demand will soon increase, it is believed, with no hope in sight of supply sufficient to meet it. Monopolistic prices now prevail and will increase unless the demand is immediately reduced to a point well below production.

Indianapolis newspaper publishers, in obedience to this appeal and anticipating that it would come, have cut off all free lists, have practically cut off all returns, have reduced unnecessary exchanges and have reduced press room waste. They will meet soon to see if any other economies can be effected.

The crisis in the news print situation was the principal topic of discussion at the meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association at Rochester, Ind., last week. It was reported at the meeting that new contracts for paper which formerly sold two to two and a half cents a pound call for the payment of four and a half and five cents.

Some Indiana dailies have raised the price of their paper from ten to fifteen cents a week and others have increased their advertising rates.

Some semi-weekly newspapers are planning either to reduce the size of their paper from eight to four pages or to change to a weekly paper. What is going on all over Indiana is also taking place in other states so that paper consumption will undoubtedly be reduced by October, when the paper famine was predicted to come about by the federal board investigating the situation.

The Inland-Daily Press association, composed of small dailies and weeklies will meet in Chicago this week to take up the situation. More publishers are disconcerted by the aloofness of the manufacturers than they are by the high prices. Many contend that there is no legitimate cause for the 100 or more per cent increase in the cost of paper because it costs no more to manufacture it than it did a year ago.

G. Carlton Guy of the Guy Players, here this week, said he had discontinued newspaper advertising in the last five or six places he had visited.

WATSON FACES A BUSY WEEK

Will Average More Than One Speech a Day, Two of Which are Chautauqua Addresses

ONE OLD SETTLERS MEETING

Three of Gatherings of That Character Last Week—Last One at Centerville

Old settlers meetings are becoming specialties for James E. Watson. Having addressed three last week, when he looked up his itinerary this morning for this week, he found that there was another one in the list.

The last one last week was at Centerville, Wayne county, Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Watson addressed 1,500 people on "Our Flag." On Friday afternoon he spoke at Madison and on Thursday afternoon at Yeddo, Fountain county, where the crowd was estimated at ten thousand people. On Friday afternoon of this week Mr. Watson will speak at Old Vernon at one o'clock, making the fourth old settlers meeting in a week.

Mr. Watson was to have delivered an address at the home-coming of the Richland M. E. church Sunday afternoon, but he found it impossible to fill the engagement because his voice was badly affected. Too many open air meetings and the strain of trying to make large audiences hear caused Mr. Watson's voice to be badly frayed and tattered.

When the candidate for the United States senate left his home here today for Indianapolis, he faced a hard week which meant the average of more than one speech a day. His itinerary called for the following addresses:

Tonight at the Republican club in Indianapolis; Tuesday afternoon at McCoy's lake in Decatur county where a Knights of Pythias joint meeting will be held; Wednesday afternoon at Woodburn, Allen county, (a Republican speech); Thursday night, New Albany, (a Republican speech); Friday afternoon at one o'clock at Vernon, (an old settlers meeting); later the same afternoon, a chautauqua speech at Moores Hill, and Saturday afternoon he will be the speaker on Republican day at the great Merom, Ind., chautauqua, in Sullivan county.

Mr. Watson aroused a high sense of patriotism at the Wayne county Old Settlers' association Saturday afternoon at Centerville when he pleaded for a renewal of the consecration of the men and women who carved a nation out of a wilderness and by devotion to church and state gave moral backbone to the nation, according to a dispatch from Centerville.

Mr. Watson drew a parallel between conditions in Europe and in the United States, pleading with his hearers to accept the efficiency of the Germans and apply it to civil life.

"We are neutral regarding the war in Europe. But we are foolish if we do not learn the lessons which that war is teaching. Germany is the most efficient nation in the world. She has family discipline, mercantile organization, industrial obedience, and industrial drill. This makes her 93 per cent efficient, compared with less than 50 per cent efficiency here.

"The military efficiency of the Germans should be applied to our civil life. We need to learn obedience discipline, the necessity of co-operation."

SACHEM OF RED MEN KILLED

Dr. C. M. Stout Dies When His Automobile Overturns

(By United Press.)

Anderson, Ind., August 21.—Dr. C. M. Stout, age 50, Middletown, Ind., past great sacheem of Indiana Red Men, was instantly killed when his auto overturned on the Pendleton pike near here this afternoon. Stout's neck was broken.

Stout was on his way to attend the funeral of Dr. Harry Cain of Indianapolis who died at a hospital here yesterday while enroute to Warsaw to be married.

RAIN AND COOLER WEATHER FORECAST

Relief From Oppressive Heat Which is Near High Mark for Summer is Promised Today

95 OFFICIAL TEMPERATURE

Showers for tonight and cooler weather tomorrow are promised by the weather man, for all of which a long suffering populace should be duly thankful because it was about as hot today as it had been any time this summer. It was also thought that as hower tonight and a drop in temperature tomorrow would be a great boost for the Rush county fair.

At one o'clock this afternoon thermometers in the business district registered ninety-five degrees. Only on one or two occasions this summer has the mercury been any higher, and then it was only one or two degrees. Downtown street thermometers showed a temperature of ninety-four degrees at one o'clock Sunday. The official high mark registered Sunday by the government thermometer at the home of Elwood Kirkwood at Maury was ninety-five.

COMMITTEES FIND A READY RESPONSE

Men Visiting Townships Today in Interests of Community Dinner Make Headway.

LEADING CITIZENS FAVOR IT

Committees in automobiles which visited every township in the county today boosting the community dinner to be held on the streets of Rushville Tuesday evening of next week, reported a fine response from farmers who were seen and acquainted with the plan.

This afternoon not all of the committeemen were back, but they will all report the progress that was made at a meeting to be held in the council chamber at eight o'clock.

The banquet will be served on tables stretching four ways from the corner of Main and Second streets, and the band will be seated on a stand at the corner. Each person who eats must furnish a basket.

H. G. Hackman, George Monjar, A. Bogue and Joe Clark visited in Henderson, Carthage, Arlington, Homer and Manilla. They took up the matter with each township trustee, and believe a contest will be aroused among them to win the flag that is offered the township with the largest attendance. Carthage business men promised to support the movement and leading citizens in other towns got behind it.

ARE PREPARING FORMAL ANSWER

Railroad Executives Meet This Afternoon After Hearing Wilson's Appeal.

ARE HOLDING SECRET SESSION

Western Presidents Reach Washington Today Prepared to Fight For Arbitration.

(By United Press.)

Washington, August 21.—Two score railroad presidents, representing the greatest railway systems in the world, were in conference here late this afternoon forming the final answer they will make to the president in an effort to avert a strike that would paralyze the nation.

The executives went into secret session after hearing an impassioned appeal by the president of the United States to "keep the railroads running not only in the interests of this country but in order to meet the demands of the entire world."

The conference between President Wilson and the railway executives ended shortly after three o'clock.

Big railroad men of the west hurrying into Washington today with the single demand of arbitration on their lips found President Wilson's answer waiting them. It is that acceptance of the 8-hour day now and appointment of a commission to investigate all the arbitration points involved in the threatened railway strike as the surest means toward bringing back a permanent workable arbitration for the future.

Arrival of the western railroad presidents and receipts of hundreds of telegrams from commercial and industrial concerns all over the country were the features of the first day of the week of the president's interroads and railroad brotherhoods. The presidents came at President Wilson's invitation and the telegrams—in part at least—were at the invitation of the railroads.

Railroad executives here made no secret of the fact that they were lining up all possible business support for their arbitration contention.

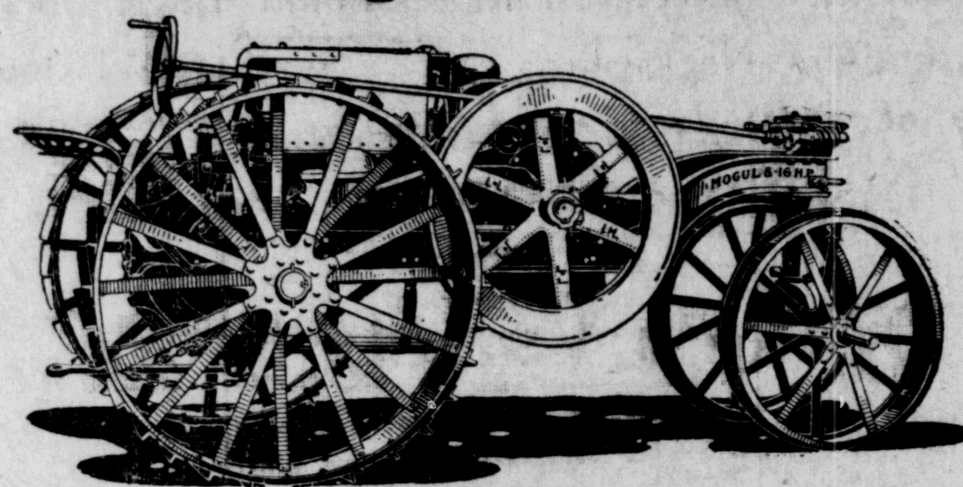

The opinion in Washington today is that demands on the president by the railroad heads for arbitration of the 8-hour day question will not move him.

The railway presidents, augmented by the new arrivals went into conference with President Wilson at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. It is understood the presidents earlier in the day had suggested such a meeting in response to intimations that the railway heads desired further developments of some of the ideas expressed by the president in his public statement Saturday. They wanted to know what might be expected in the way of co-operation from the interstate commerce commission in case of necessary rate adjustments and also what the president may have in mind regarding future prevention of crises like the present.

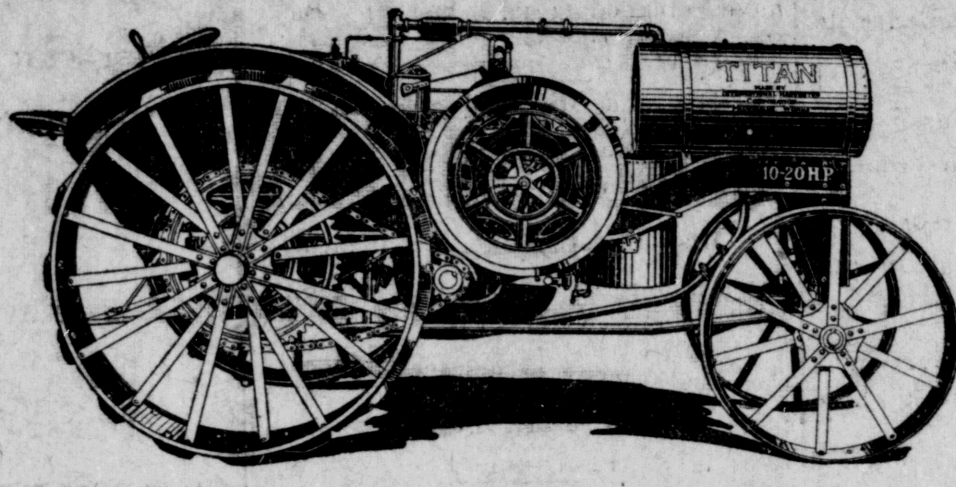

The conference of railway presidents this morning was unique. Men representing millions of dollars of railway wealth moved about the tenth floor of the New Willard in their shirt sleeves "getting down to brass tacks," on the situation confronting them. It was all informal, the executives talking, first in one group, then in another "speaking ideas and opinions." There was no apparent effort to organize and agree upon a general plan of procedure. Representatives of the management committee were present at the conference.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Special Taxes.

Democratic testimony that the Underwood tariff bill fails by upward of $200,000,000 to raise its share of the revenue needed to carry on the government is furnished by the Senate Finance committee which has, after strenuous labors, reported a supplementary revenue bill imposing special taxes designed to raise $205,000,000 revenue. Probably many Democrats will be reluctant to admit that this means taking out of the pockets of Americans over $20,000,000 which, under a different tariff could just as well be taken out of the pockets of foreigners; although there is much evidence to support that contention, clearly established instances where the wholesale price advanced exactly the amount of the of the foreign manufacturer has been reduction in the tariff, so that the American consumer gained nothing from the reduction of the duty. But no Democrat can deny that these special taxes are made necessary by the failure of the Underwood bill to provide sufficient revenues. The special taxes are bound to be onerous in many cases. For instance, every theatre or place of amusement which seats 250 must pay a tax of $25; which seats 500, a tax of $50, and so on up. All bowling alleys and billiard parlors must pay a special tax of $5 for each alley and each table. Every mortgage and certificate of indebtedness must pay a stamp tax of 50 cents for every $500 of amount. A form of duty is imposed by special taxes on all goods entering and coming out of custom-houses and bonded warehouses. Steamship and Pullman tickets bear special taxes, and many other things, all in addition to doubling the income tax, and imposing heavy taxes on inheritances. The House tax on war munitions was rejected when it was found it would hit cotton, and there was substituted an additional tax on the profits of corporation which, it is expected, will be collected almost entirely in the Northern states.

Tariff Still Charms.

Reports from the west indicate that whenever Gov. Hughes touches upon the tariff and states the Republican position his remarks are most enthusiastically received. This confirms the view of the Republican managers that a majority of just about 1,500,000 of the voters in this country believe in protective tariff. In 1912, it is recalled, the combined Republican and Progressive vote exceeded that received by President Wilson by upwards of 1,300,000. In that election there were some Democrats who voted the Progressive ticket, and many Republicans, who being opposed to Roosevelt and feeling Taft could not win, voted for Wilson. But taking it all in all, the estimate of a million and a half majority of protectionists is doubtless correct. Assuming this to be true, and knowing the equivocal and unswerving advocacy of protection for American workmen by the Republican party, the Republican managers figure that every Democratic or unidentified voter who is won by an ex-Mr. Wilson's weak, vacillating forposure of Democratic incompetence, foreign policy, his needless invasion of Mexico, and so on, means an addition to those who will naturally vote for Hughes on the square-toed issue of protection. Furthermore, they find considerable measure of confirmation of their view in the spectacular efforts of the Democrats to preempt a small corner on the protection band-wagon, Mr. Wilson's eleventh hour conversion to the creation of a tariff board, etc. In due time, the Republican orators will make a drive on the tariff, accompanying their arguments with analysis of the Underwood tariff bill and its effects which, they assert, will pretty nearly blow their Democratic adversaries out of the water.

Speaking of strikes reminds us that it is about time for the underpaid newspaper publishers to strike for higher subscription rates, increased job printing prices, and better compensation in every way. With printer's supplies up in price from 25 to 100 per cent, about the only profit left the publisher is his experience, and that has never yet satisfied a gnawing stomach.

No, we have not entirely forgotten the European sizzle. We glance at the headlines occasionally.

The Betting Boards

The New York betting boards are offering odds of two to one on the election of Hughes, and the local democratic organ perturbed somewhat by the meaning of this presentment, calls out in agony that Wall street is seeking to discredit Wilson. Wall street really has nothing to do with it as the democratic organ well knows. The betting boards of New York reflect the cold blooded judgment of men who are familiar with political conditions and who are desirous of capitalizing their knowledge. They bet not from sentiment but to make money, and their offerings reflect their opinions and not their desires. Moreover, the offerings of those betting boards have stood for many years as a most reliable political barometer. They have not missed calling the turn of a presidential election since 1884, when they gave Blaine a shade the better of it, only to have him lose. Yet Blaine's triumph was prevented, we all recall, by the immortal break of Dr. Burchard on the eve of the election.

Four years ago these betting boards indicated very clearly the election of Mr. Wilson and their forecast was exultantly pointed to by the democratic press of the country as prophetic of what would transpire on election day. And transpire it did. There was no bleating of Wall street then, you may be assured. By the way, it might be pleasantly suggested that the Wall street logy has worn out. It no longer frightens even children in politics.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 21.—Those with long hair awoke in LaPorte this morning with hard luck facing them. Beginning today the "two-bit" haircut in this city is no more for at all barbershops the sign "Hair-cut, 35 cents," was hung out. Increase in the cost of barber's supplies and the increase in wages is responsible for the higher cost of haircuts, the barbers announced.

UNDERGROUND FIRE IS OUT

After Burning For Months it is Finally Extinguished

(By United Press.)
Gary, Ind., Aug. 21.—Gary's underground fire is out today after burning for two months. Starting, it is believed, from a bonfire at Fifteenth avenue and Taney street the fire slowly burned through the bog until it reached a depth of fifty feet. Thousands of gallons of water were poured into the ground without result. Last week's rains so weakened the fire's strength that Fire Chief Grant and his men were able to conquer it.

NIGHT SPECTACLE AT INDIANA FAIR

Gorgeous Pageant to Celebrate
Hoosier Centennial.

The most gorgeous night spectacle of the Indiana centennial year will be the historical pageant that will be given at the state fair the week of Sept. 4. It will, in fact, be the most extensive outdoor display that has been undertaken in the history of the state and on stupendous scale it will accurately review the important episodes before and since the formation of the Indiana commonwealth.

It will, too, be the outstanding night display of the Indiana centenary, in which hundreds of costumed characters will take part, including a band of 100 genuine Indians, pioneer settlements will be set up, towns will grow, and tragedies of the wars in which Indiana had conspicuous part will be enacted.

A stage 500 feet long, appropriately set with Indiana scenic effects, will be used for the vivid history pictures, and this brilliant portrayal of Hoosier history will end with the most dazzling display of fireworks that has ever been given in Indiana.

The spectacle will be staged by J. Saunders Gordon, of St. Louis, who began preparations for it last April, when he started probing Hoosier history for the most important episodes, and, in addition to the massed groups of French explorers, pioneer settlers, Indians, soldiers, characters impersonating the men who won the Hoosier wilderness from the Indians and from the French and developed it into the prosperous land that it is today, will take part.

LeSalle, the first of the French explorers; Col. Hamilton, British commander at Fort Vincennes; Gen. George Rogers Clark, the hero of pioneer Indiana; Gov. William Henry Harrison; Tecumseh, the Indian prophet Allen Wiley, the first circuit rider; President Abraham Lincoln, stopping in Indianapolis on his way to Washington; Morton, the war governor; Gen. Lew Wallace; Col. Shuler, the pursuer of the Morgan raiders, all have prominence in the action of this stirring centennial review.

The spectacle will review Indiana history by periods. The first will show the Indians in their daily life before the white man came; the coming of LaSalle and his French followers into the unbroken forest and the starting of the first log settlement; the coming of the emigrants and the building of the stockade of Fort Kaskaskia.

The second period reviews the war of British and Indians against the settlers, the conference of Tecumseh with Gen. Harrison and the great battle with the Indians at Tippecanoe. The third period illustrates the formation of the new state at Corydon and the meeting of the first Hoosier legislature. The fourth period tells the stirring story of the first religious work in Indiana, the building of the first church at Corydon.

The fifth period reviews the part Indiana had in the Civil war, how the Hoosiers received the word of secession and how they rallied and marched to the front under the Union colors.

One of the most thrilling scenes of the pageant will show Morgan's raid in southern Indiana and his retreat before the forces of Col. Schuler.

You will find, in all probability, an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding between the crevices. YOUR DENTIFRICE does not FULLY CLEAN! Loss of teeth is caused usually by one of two conditions—Pyorrhea or decay, both of which develop, as a rule, only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

SENRECO, the recently discovered formula of a dental specialist, is two-fold in its action. First, it REALLY CLEANS, embodying specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Second, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Yet it is perfectly safe, containing neither injurious chemicals nor hard grit.

After the bountiful basket dinner was served, a short program was given including piano solos by Emily Mauzy and Miss Blacklidge. During the business session, Alva Newhouse was elected president for the coming year; Mrs. S. L. It was decided to hold the reunion next year the Sunday following chautauqua at the city park.

SCHOOL PICNIC

The picnic given yesterday for members of the Raleigh schools since 1877, although the first of the kind, was such a success that it was decided to make it an annual affair. It was held in the beautiful grove adjoining the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwell and was attended by about 150 people. The elaborate dinner was spread about noon. Although it was quite a disappointment that the music for the afternoon's program was prevented from coming, the afternoon was a thoroughly enjoyable one. The picnic for next year will be held at the same place and an endeavor will be made to have even more members of the schools and their families present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Looney and Herbert Caldwell were entertained at dinner yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Newhouse of near Glenwood.

Officers for the coming year were elected with Arthur Bogue of this city as president; Earl Downey as secretary-treasurer; and John Downey as vice-president. It was decided to hold the reunion next year at the same place on the 3rd Sunday in August.

Although representatives from all parts of the state were included in the 125 guests at the reunion, a great number was present from this county. There were, Mrs. Mary E. Bogue, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bogue and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert DeWitt and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Fleener, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. HUGHES MAY MEET GOVERNOR JOHNSON

Possible Such a Thing Will be Arranged While Nominee is in California

San Diego, Cal., August 21.—A meeting between Governor Johnson of California and Republican Presidential Nominee Hughes may be arranged before the candidate leaves California. This effort to promote harmony between the Republican factions in this state was being made today when it became known that Gov. Hughes was at Long Beach Sunday at the same time the California executive was there. Gov. Johnson, however, out of respect to Gov. Hughes' busy program, did not inform the presidential nominee that he was there so there was no meeting.

It was said today that a meeting may be arranged at Sacramento while Hughes is on his way to Ogden. Today Gov. Hughes saw something of the San Diego exposition, planted a tree and addressed a mass meeting here, returning to Los Angeles in time to speak before a big gathering tonight.

Amusements

The Gem offers the five act feature, "A Matrimonial Martyr" for the program tonight. Ruth Roland is featured. The picture tells a very thrilling story with many complications. Erna Desmond lives with her aunt and uncle on their large estate on Long Island. She is in love with Chester Clynch, but her uncle frowns on her choice and the two decide to elope. The complications following make an interesting story and the audience is held until a solution is reached.

"Her Debt of Honor" is the title of the five act Metro feature at the Princess tonight. Valli Valli is featured and it is said to be a strong drama of modern life. Miss Valli is supported by William Nigh, Frank Bacon and David Thompson. Tomorrow Henry King, the noted actor will be seen in the drama "The Stained Pearl."

The Guy players arrived yesterday and everything is in readiness for the opening tonight. The company presents all new plays and vaudeville. The tent is located at the baseball grounds. The opening play tonight is "Receipt in Fall." Ladies free tonight under the usual conditions. A change of program will be offered each night.

LIQUOR FIGHT IN WHITELY IS WARM

Announcement That Roadhouse
Would be Established Near Dry
Territory Causes Stir

CIRCULATE REMONSTRANCE

(By United Press.)
Columbia City, Ind., Aug. 21.—Though Columbia City voted dry and will become saloonless September 1, Whitely county is today in the midst of the hottest wet and dry fight in the history of the county.

The fight is the outcome of the announced plan to establish a roadhouse just outside the city limits, near one of the city's public school buildings. Columbia township outside the city did not vote at recent option election and so is now wet territory.

The "drys" contend that a roadhouse outside the city limits beyond police control will be worse than a saloon within the city. The "wets" assert that they have a right to establish a place to sell liquor outside the city and that the dry remonstrance now being circulated will fail to have enough signers to prevent them carrying out their plans.

Maybe you've noticed in our advertisements
this little phrase

"Good Merchandise and Nothing Else"

It's small type, doesn't look very significant in print, but like a lot of other small things in this world it means a great deal.

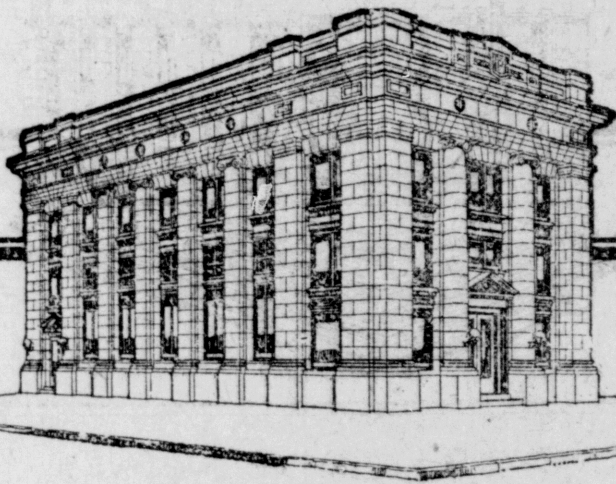

The Part That Means the Most to you is the "Nothing Else"

Good goods are plentiful, we haven't got 'em all, we want to emphasize the "NOTHING ELSE" part of it. When you want to buy something good, the way to be sure of getting it is to go where there is nothing else.

We Have a Big Stock of Dry Goods, Carpets, Coats, Suits

But mere quantity is nothing, size doesn't mean anything by itself. We don't ask our customers to take any chances in choosing between good and pretty-good merchandise. We do all the selecting before you do. "NOTHING ELSE" means that whatever you buy here and whatever you pay you can't go wrong. We are so sure of our part of it we guarantee yours for as long a time as you like.

MILITIA MAY BE SENT HOME

(By United Press.)
Washington, August 21.—The American troops will not be withdrawn from Mexico until the joint Mexico-American commission has met and such action has been recommended by the American members, a high official said today.
The statement was made as an answer to a question regarding the action to be taken on General Funston's report that the troops might now be withdrawn without endangering the safety of the border. At the same time the belief was expressed that the militia on the border would be returned to their respective states not long after the troops are withdrawn from Mexico and the border patrol duty left entirely to the regular army.

Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' COMBINED RACE PURSES $3,225

This Year's Program Will be Best
Ever Offered Because Over 50
Horses are on Grounds

8 TO START IN THE 2:15 PACE

Usual Number of Concessions is on
The Grounds—Many People
Visit Place Sunday

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the Rush county fair tomorrow. The track is in fine shape and the opening day's races promises to be the best of the entire week. Two events are on the program—the 2:15 pace, purse $500 and the Merchants' Road trot for a purse of $115.

With the best collection of horses ever on the grounds the racing promises to be the best ever witnessed. The large barn is filled and additional space was needed for the horses. Over 50 head of horses are quartered at the fair grounds and more are to come. The usual Sunday crowd visited the fair grounds and everyone was of the opinion that this year's fair would be the best in years.

The usual number of concessions were on the grounds yesterday and more were enroute today. The I. & C. handled a large crowd to and from the grounds. The traction line will have regular service to the fair Tuesday.

The fair association is relying on the race program to attract the lovers of fast horses. No effort has been spared to give the people the best program possible and with the class of horses stabled at the fair grounds there is little doubt as to the racing end of the fair. The races Tuesday will start at 2 o'clock. The events on other days will start at 1:30 o'clock. E. A. Kneisley of Kokomo will act as starter. Mr. Kneisley acted in this capacity last year and gave complete satisfaction.

The 2:15 pace, the first race on Tuesday's program has eighteen entries with possibly eighteen starters. This is one of the stake races with the purse at $500. Last year this race was one of the best of the entire week, as every heat was a race and the money was not decided until the last heat. The point system will be used this year as last year. A field of eight starters is a little bulky for the small track but can be handled, as was demonstrated last year.

The 2:15 pace will bring out a field of classy horses. The horses entered are not all unknown to the followers of the game here. Many of the horses were here last year and a majority have been on this circuit this year.

The Merchants' road trot, for local horses, is attracting wide attention. The purse was sweetened by the merchants and is now worth $115. This is the largest sum ever offered here for a road race. Up until noon today five horses had been entered and it was likely that a total of seven starters would go under the wire.

W. H. Cleveland and his ostrich arrived at the grounds yesterday. The big bird attracted considerable attention. The ostrich will race with a horse and automobile on Wednesday afternoon. The bird is said to possess remarkable speed and week before last at the Columbus track went a half mile in 1:32.

In addition to the regular race program the fair association has added two running races. The first of these will be staged on Wednesday.

The funeral arrangements have not been made, pending the arrival of his parents.

NEW PROBLEM IN PAVING HAS ARISEN

High Tension Poles of I. & C. Traction Line Must be Moved in First Street

FROM PEARL STREET WEST

A new difficulty has developed in the West First street paving. This is the moving of the high tension poles of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company from Pearl street west to the Big Four railway. Under the plans for the street paving the street is to be thirty feet wide from Pearl street to the Big Four and if this is carried out the poles would be in the street.

These poles are used by the traction line to carry the wires supplying the "juice" to the Shelbyville division. It will be necessary to move the poles back of the curb. It is understood that the property owners object to having the poles on their property, but as it is against the law to have them in the street there remains little else to do.

The property owners overlooked the time to remonstrate against the placing of the poles inside the curb line and the city is going ahead on the theory that they have the right to order the poles placed there. The I. & C. is ready to move the poles but is awaiting some order from the council. The county commissioners have ordered the I. & C. to make the change and this is expected to end the matter as far as the city is concerned.

U. S. RECRUITING OFFICE OPENED

Two Privates of United States Army Are at Fair Grounds Ready to Get Enlistments.

HAVE FULL FIELD EQUIPMENT

The United States army has opened a recruiting station at the fair ground and it is hoped to have several Rush county boys enlist before the week is over. The office at the fair grounds is in charge of Private Sampson High, assisted by Private Claude D. Polmateer. The tent is located just across from the dance hall.

The men have a full field equipment with them and the exhibit is open to the public. At this time the government is offering special inducements for all men to learn trades, such as mechanical and electrical engineering and clerical work. The recruiting officers are prepared to give all applicants an examination and will pay the expenses to Indianapolis.

ECONOMIES ARE BEING PRACTICED

Newspaper Publishers are Cutting Down Lists to Meet Shortage in Print Paper

REPUBLICAN TAKES STEP

Unnecessary Exchanges and Complimentaries are Cut Off—Policy of Other Papers

Because of the shortage in news print paper newspaper publishers all over the United States are practicing all the economies possible to reduce the consumption in paper so that consumption will not be greater than the present production.

In accordance with this rule, the Daily Republican is today cutting from its mailing list all unnecessary exchanges and complimentaries. This will become effective tomorrow.

The board of directors and paper committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' association met in New York last week and decided on a policy of economy in regard to the consumption of news print paper. A telegram was sent to all newspapers in the association, which includes several hundred of the most important newspapers of the country, calling attention to the fact that the production of news print is at its maximum and that there is no surplus stock on hand.

The demand will soon increase, it is believed, with no hope in sight of supply sufficient to meet it. Monopolistic prices now prevail and will increase unless the demand is immediately reduced to a point well below production.

Indianapolis newspaper publishers, in obedience to this appeal and anticipating that it would come, have cut off all free lists, have practically cut off all returns, have reduced unnecessary exchanges and have reduced press room waste. will meet soon to see if any other economies can be effected.

The crisis in the news print situation was the principal topic of discussion at the meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association at Rochester, Ind., last week. It was reported at the meeting that new contracts for paper which formerly sold two to two and a half cents a pound call for the payment of four and a half and five cents.

Some Indiana dailies have raised the price of their paper from ten to fifteen cents a week and others have increased their advertising rates.

Some semi-weekly newspapers are planning either to reduce the size of their paper from eight to four pages or to change to a weekly paper. What is going on all over Indiana is also taking place in other states so that paper consumption will undoubtedly be reduced by October, when the paper famine was predicted to come about by the federal board investigating the situation.

The Inland-Daily Press association, composed of small dailies and weeklies will meet in Chicago this week to take up the situation. More publishers are disconcerted by the aloofness of the manufacturers than they are by the high prices. Many contend that there is no legitimate cause for the 100 or more per cent increase in the cost of paper because it costs no more to manufacture it than it did a year ago.

G. Carlton Guy of the Guy Players, here this week, said he had discontinued newspaper advertising in the last five or six places he had

WATSON FACES A BUSY WEEK

Will Average More Than One Speech a Day, Two of Which are Chautauqua Addresses

ONE OLD SETTLERS MEETING

Three of Gatherings of That Character Last Week—Last One at Centerville

Old settlers meetings are becoming specialties for James E. Watson. Having addressed three last week, when he looked up his itinerary this morning for this week, he found that there was another one in the list.

The last one last week was at Centerville, Wayne county, Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Watson addressed 1,500 people on "Our Flag." On Friday afternoon he spoke at Madison and on Thursday afternoon at Yeddo, Fountain county, where the crowd was estimated at ten thousand people. On Friday afternoon of this week Mr. Watson will speak at Old Vernon at one o'clock, making the fourth old settlers meeting in a week.

Mr. Watson was to have delivered an address at the home-coming of the Richland M. E. church Sunday afternoon, but he found it impossible to fill the engagement because his voice was badly affected. Too many open air meetings and the strain of trying to make large audiences hear caused Mr. Watson's voice to be badly frayed and tattered.

When the candidate for the United States senate left his home here today for Indianapolis, he faced a hard week which meant the average of more than one speech a day. His itinerary called for the following addresses:

Tonight at the Republican club in Indianapolis; Tuesday afternoon at McCoy's lake in Decatur county where a Knights of Pythias joint meeting will be held; Wednesday afternoon at Woodburn, Allen county, (a Republican speech); Thursday night, New Albany, (a Republican speech); Friday afternoon at one o'clock at Vernon, (an old settlers meeting); later the same afternoon, a chautauqua speech at Moores Hill, and Saturday afternoon he will be the speaker on Republican day at the great Merom, Ind., chautauqua, in Sullivan county.

Mr. Watson aroused a high sense of patriotism at the Wayne county Old Settlers' association Saturday afternoon at Centerville when he pleaded for a renewal of the consecration of the men and women who carved a nation out of a wilderness and by devotion to church and state gave moral backbone to the nation, according to a dispatch from Centerville.

Mr. Watson drew a parallel between conditions in Europe and in the United States, pleading with his hearers to accept the efficiency of the Germans' and apply it to civil life.

"We are neutral regarding the war in Europe. But we are foolish if we do not learn the lessons which that war is teaching. Germany is the most efficient nation in the world. She has family discipline, mercantile organization, industrial obedience, and industrial drill. This makes her 93 per cent efficient, compared with less than 50 per cent efficiency here.

"The military efficiency of the Germans should be applied to our civil life. We need to learn obedience discipline, the necessity of co-operation."

Dr. C. M. Stout Dies When His Automobile Overturns

(By United Press.)
Anderson, Ind., August 21.—Dr. C. M. Stout, age 50, Middletown, Ind., past great sachem of Indiana Red Men, was instantly killed when his auto overturned on the Pendleton pike near here this afternoon. Stout's neck was broken.

Stout was on his way to attend the funeral of Dr. Harry Cain of Indianapolis who died at a hospital here yesterday while enroute to Warsaw to be married.

RAIN AND COOLER WEATHER FORECAST

95 OFFICIAL TEMPERATURE

Showers for tonight and cooler weather tomorrow are promised by the weather man, for all of which a long suffering populace should be duly thankful because it was about as hot today as it had been any time this summer. It was also thought that as lower tonight and a drop in temperature tomorrow would be a great boost for the Rush county fair.

At one o'clock this afternoon thermometers in the business district registered ninety-five degrees. Only on one or two occasions this summer has the mercury been any higher, and then it was only one or two degrees. Downtown street thermometers showed a temperature of ninety-four degrees at one o'clock Sunday. The official high mark registered Sunday by the government thermometer at the home of Elwood Kirkwood at Maazy was ninety-five.

COMMITTEES FIND A READY RESPONSE

Men Visiting Townships Today in Interests of Community Dinner Make Headway.

LEADING CITIZENS FAVOR IT

Committees in automobiles which visited every township in the county today boosting the community dinner to be held on the streets of Rushville Tuesday evening of next week, reported a fine response from farmers who were seen and acquainted with the plan.

This afternoon not all of the committeemen were back, but they will all report the progress that was made at a meeting to be held in the council chamber at eight o'clock.

The banquet will be served on tables stretching four ways from the corner of Main and Second streets, and the band will be seated on a stand at the corner. Each person who eats must furnish a basket.

H. G. Hackman, George Monjar, A. Bogue and Joe Clark visited in Henderson, Carthage, Arlington, Homer and Manilla. They took up the matter with each township trustee, and believe a contest will be aroused among them to win the flag that is offered the township with the largest attendance. Carthage business men promised to support the movement and leading citizens in other towns got behind it.

ARE PREPARING FORMAL ANSWER

Railroad Executives Meet This Afternoon After Hearing Wilson's Appeal.

ARE HOLDING SECRET SESSION

Western Presidents Reach Washington Today Prepared to Fight For Arbitration.

(By United Press.)
Washington, August 21.—Two score railroad presidents, representing the greatest railway systems in the world, were in conference here late this afternoon forming the final answer they will make to the president in an effort to avert a strike that would paralyze the nation.

The executives went into secret session after hearing an impassioned appeal by the president of the United States to "keep the railroads running not only in the interests of this country but in order to meet the demands of the entire world."

The conference between President Wilson and the railway executives ended shortly after three o'clock.

Big railroad men of the west hurrying into Washington today with the single demand of arbitration on their lips found President Wilson's answer waiting them. It is that acceptance of the 8-hour day now and appointment of a commission to investigate all the arbitration points involved in the threatened railway strike as the surest means toward bringing back a permanent workable arbitration for the future.

Arrival of the western railroad presidents and receipts of hundreds of telegrams from commercial and industrial concerns all over the country were the features of the first day of the week of the president's inter-roads and railroad brotherhoods. The presidents came at President Wilson's invitation and the telegrams—in part at least—were at the invitation of the railroads.

Railroad executives here made no secret of the fact that they were lining up all possible business support for their arbitration contention.

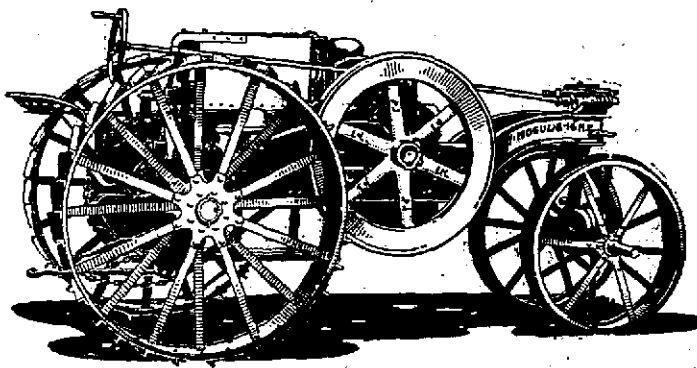

The opinion in Washington today is that demands on the president by the railroad heads for arbitration of the 8-hour day question will not move him.

The railway presidents, accompanied by the new arrivals went into conference with President Wilson at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. It is understood the presidents earlier in the day had suggested such a meeting in response to intimations that the railway heads desired further developments of some of the ideas expressed by the president in his public statement Saturday. They wanted to know what might be expected in the way of co-operation from the interstate commerce commission in case of necessary rate adjustments and also what the president may have in mind regarding future prevention of crises like the present.

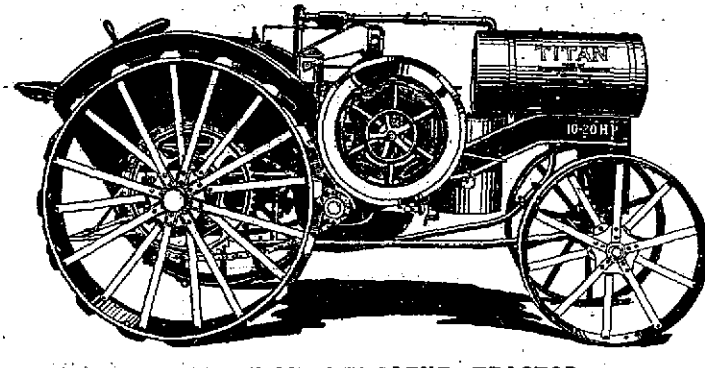

The conference of railway presidents this morning was unique. Men representing millions of dollars of railway wealth moved about the tenth floor of the New Willard in their shirt sleeves "getting down to brass tacks," on the situation confronting them. It was all informal, the executives talking, first in one group; then in another "speaking ideas and opinions." There was no apparent effort to organize and agree upon a general plan of procedure. Representatives of the managers committee were present at the conference.

Special Taxes.

Democratic testimony that the Underwood tariff bill fails by upward of $200,000,000 to raise its share of the revenue needed to carry on the government is furnished by the Senate Finance committee which has, after strenuous labors, reported a supplementary revenue bill imposing special taxes designed to raise $205,000,000 revenue. Probably many Democrats would be reluctant to admit that this means taking out of the pockets of Americans over $20,000,000 which, under a different tariff could just as well be taken out of the pockets of foreigners; although there is much evidence to support that contention, clearly established instances where the wholesale price advanced exactly the amount of the of the foreign manufacturer has been reduction in the tariff, so that the American consumer gained nothing from the reduction of the duty. But no Democrat can deny that these special taxes are made necessary by the failure of the Underwood bill to provide sufficient revenues. The special taxes are bound to be onerous in many cases. For instance, every theatre or place of amusement which seats 250 must pay a tax of $25; which seats 500, a tax of $50, and so on up. All bowling alleys and billiard parlors must pay a special tax of $5 for each alley and each table. Every mortgage and certificate of indebtedness must pay a stamp tax of 50 cents for every $500 of amount. A form of duty is imposed by special taxes on all goods entering and coming out of custom-houses and bonded warehouses. Steamship and Pullman tickets bear special taxes, and many other things, all in addition to doubling the income tax, and imposing heavy taxes on inheritances. The House tax on war munitions was rejected when it was found it would hit cotton, and there was substituted an additional tax on the profits of corporation which, it is expected, will be collected almost entirely in the Northern states.

Tariff Still Charms

Reports from the west indicate, that whenever Gov. Hughes touches upon the tariff and states the Republican position his remarks are most enthusiastically received. This confirms the view of the Republican managers that a majority of just about 1,500,000 of the voters in this country believe in protective tariff. In 1912, it is recalled, the combined Republican and Progressive vote exceeded that received by President Wilson by upwards of 1,300,000. In that election there were some Democrats who voted the Progressive ticket, and many Republicans, who being opposed to Roosevelt and feeling Taft could not win, voted for Wilson. But taking it all in all, the estimate of a million and a half majority of protectionists is doubtless correct. Assuming this to be true, and knowing the equivocal and unswerving advocacy of protection for American workmen by the Republican party, the Republican managers figure that every Democratic or unidentified voter who is won by an ex-Mr. Wilson's weak, vacillating forposure of Democratic incompetence, foreign policy, his needless invasion of Mexico, and so on, means an addition to those who will naturally vote for Hughes on the square-toed issue of protection. Furthermore, they find considerable measure of confirmation of their view in the spectacular efforts of the Democrats to preempt a small corner on the protection band-wagon, Mr. Wilson's eleventh hour conversion to the creation of a tariff board, etc. In due time, the Republican orators will make a drive on the tariff, accompanying their arguments with analysis of the Underwood tariff bill and its effects which, they assert, will pretty nearly blow their Democratic adversaries out of the water.

Speaking of strikes reminds us that it is about time for the underpaid newspaper publishers to strike for higher subscription rates, increased job printing prices, and better compensation in every way. With printer's supplies up in price from 25 to 100 per cent, about the only profit left the publisher is his experience, and that has never yet satisfied a gnawing stomach.

No, we have not entirely forgotten the European sizzle. We glance at the headlines occasionally.

The Betting Boards

The New York betting boards are offering odds of two to one on the election of Hughes, and the local democratic organ perturbed somewhat by the meaning of this presentment, calls out in agony that Wall street is seeking to discredit Wilson. Wall street really has nothing to do with it as the democratic organ well knows. The betting boards of New York reflect the cold blooded judgment of men who are familiar with political conditions and who are desirous of capitalizing their knowledge. They bet not from sentiment but to make money, and their offerings reflect their opinions and not their desires. Moreover, the offerings of those betting boards have stood for many years as a most reliable political barometer. They have not missed calling the turn of a presidential election since 1884, when they gave Blaine a shade the better of it, only to have him lose. Yet Blaine's triumph was prevented, we all recall, by the immortal break of Dr. Baughman on the eve of the election.

Four years ago these betting boards indicated very clearly the election of Mr. Wilson and their forecast was exultantly pointed to by the democratic press of the country as prophetic of what would transpire on election day. And transpire it did. There was no bleating of Wall street then, you may be assured. By the way, it might be pleasantly suggested that the Wall street logy has worn out. It no longer frightens even children in politics.

RAISE PRICE OF HAIR CUTS

Barbers at LaPorte Increase Cost to Thirty-Five Cents

(By United Press.)
LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 21.—Those with long hair awoke in LaPorte this morning with hard luck facing them. Beginning today the "two-bit" haircut in this city is no more for at all barbershops the sign "Haircut, 35 cents," was hung out. Increase in the cost of barber's supplies and the increase in wages is responsible for the higher cost of haircuts, the barbers announced.

UNDERGROUND FIRE IS OUT

After Burning For Months it is
Finally Extinguished

(By United Press.)
Gary, Ind., Aug. 21.—Gary's underground fire is out today after burning for two months. Starting, it is believed, from a bonfire at Fifteenth avenue and Taney street the fire slowly burned through the bog until it reached a depth of fifty feet. Thousands of gallons of water were poured into the ground without result. Last week's rains so weakened the fire's strength that Fire Chief Grant and his men were able to conquer it.

NIGHT SPECTACLE AT INDIANA FAIR

Gorgeous Pageant to Celebrate
Hoosier Centennial.

The most gorgeous night spectacle of the Indiana centennial year will be the historical pageant that will be given at the state fair the week of Sept. 4. It will, in fact, be the most extensive outdoor display that has been undertaken in the history of the state and on stupendous scale it will accurately review the important episodes before and since the formation of the Indiana commonwealth.

It will, too, be the outstanding night display of the Indiana centenary, in which hundreds of costumed characters will take part, including a band of 100 genuine Indians, pioneer settlements will be set up, towns will grow, and tragedies of the wars in which Indiana had conspicuous part will be enacted.

A stage 500 feet long, appropriately set with Indiana scenic effects, will be used for the vivid history pictures, and this brilliant portrayal of Hoosier history will end with the most dazzling display of fireworks that has ever been given in Indiana.

The spectacle will be staged by J. Saunders Gordon, of St. Louis, who began preparations for it last April, when he started probing Hoosier history for the most important episodes, and, in addition to the massed groups of French explorers, pioneer settlers, Indians, soldiers, characters impersonating the men who won the Hoosier wilderness from the Indians and from the French and developed it into the prosperous land that it is today, will take part.

LeSalle, the first of the French explorers; Col. Hamilton, British commander at Fort Vincennes; Gen. George Rogers Clark, the hero of pioneer Indiana; Gov. William Henry Harrison; Tecumseh, the Indian prophet Allen Wiley, the first circuit rider; President Abraham Lincoln, stopping in Indianapolis on his way to Washington; Morton, the war governor; Gen. Lew Wallace; Col. Shuler, the pursuer of the Morgan raiders, all have prominence in the action of this stirring centennial review.

The spectacle will review Indiana history by periods. The first will show the Indians in their daily life before the white man came; the coming of LaSalle and his French followers into the unbroken forest and the starting of the first log settlement; the coming of the emigrants and the building of the stockade of Fort Kaskaskia.

The second period reviews the war of British and Indians against the settlers, the conference of Tecumseh with Gen. Harrison and the great battle with the Indians at Tippecanoe. The third period illustrates the formation of the new state at Corydon and the meeting of the first Hoosier legislature. The fourth period tells the stirring story of the first religious work in Indiana, the building of the first church at Corydon.

The fifth period reviews the part Indiana had in the Civil war, how the Hoosiers received the word of secession and how they rallied and marched to the front under the Union colors.

One of the most thrilling scenes of the pageant will show Morgan's raid in southern Indiana and his retreat before the forces of Col. Schuler.

Examine Your TEETH Tonight

—after you clean them.

You will find, in all probability, an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding between the crevices. YOUR DENTIFRICE does not FULLY CLEAN! Loss of teeth is caused usually by one of two conditions—Pyorrhea or decay, both of which develop, as a rule, only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

SENRECO, the recently discovered formula of a dental specialist, is two-fold in its action. First, it REALLY CLEANS, embodying specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Second, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Yet it is perfectly safe, containing neither injurious chemicals nor hard grit.

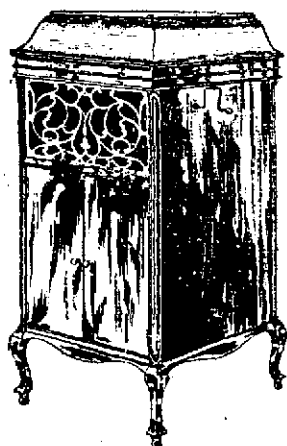

Avoid Pyorrhea and decay. Get Senreco from your dealer today. In large tubes, 25c. Send 4c to Senreco, 304 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, for liberal-sized trial package.

SCHOOL PICNIC

The picnic given yesterday for members of the Raleigh schools since 1877, although the first of the kind, was such a success that it was decided to make it an annual affair. It was held in the beautiful grove adjoining the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwell and was attended by about 150 people. The elaborate dinner was spread about noon. Although it was quite a disappointment that the music for the afternoon's program was prevented from coming, the afternoon was a thoroughly enjoyable one. The picnic for next year will be held at the same place and an endeavor will be made to have even more members of the schools and their families present.

HUGHES MAY MEET GOVERNOR JOHNSON

Possible Such a Thing Will be Arranged While Nominee is in California

San Diego, Cal., August 21.—A meeting between Governor Johnson of California and Republican Presidential Nominee Hughes may be arranged before the candidate leaves California. This effort to promote harmony between the Republican factions in this state was being made today when it became known that Gov. Hughes was at Long Beach Sunday at the same time the California executive was there. Gov. Johnson, however, out of respect to Gov. Hughes' busy program, did not inform the presidential nominee that he was there so there was no meeting.

It was said today that a meeting may be arranged at Sacramento while Hughes is on his way to Ogden. Today Gov. Hughes saw something of the San Diego exposition, planted a tree and addressed a mass meeting here, returning to Los Angeles in time to speak before a big gathering tonight.

Amusements

The Gem offers the five act feature, "A Matrimonial Martyr" for the program tonight. Ruth Roland is featured. The picture tells a very thrilling story with many complications. Erma Desmond lives with her aunt and uncle on their large estate on Long Island. She is in love with Chester Clynch, but her uncle frowns on her choice and the two decide to elope. The complications following make an interesting story and the audience is held until a solution is reached.

"Her Debt of Honor" is the title of the five act Metro feature at the Princess tonight. Valli Valli is featured and it is said to be a strong drama of modern life. Miss Valli is supported by William Nigh, Frank Bacon and David Thompson. Tomorrow Henry King, the noted actor will be seen in the drama "The Stained Pearl."

The Guy players arrived yesterday and everything is in readiness for the opening tonight. The company presents all new plays and vaudeville. The tent is located at the baseball grounds. The opening play tonight is "Receipt in Full." Ladies free tonight under the usual conditions. A change of program will be offered each night.

Local News

A baby boy weighing nine and a half pounds was born this morning to the wife of Wilbur Mahin, rural carrier on rural route No. 11, at their home in North Morgan street.

Deputy Sheriff Sullivan took Ernest and Ralph Pitman of near New Salem to the reformatory at Jeffersonville yesterday. The boys were sent to serve from one to eight years on charges of petit larceny.

A flying squadron, advertising the Morristown chautauqua, which opens tomorrow and continues over Sunday, was in the city today. Several people from here will attend next Sunday evening when Richmond P. Hobson gives an address on "Our Country." The lecture is at 8:15 o'clock Sunday night.

Catherine Wamsley was painfully injured Saturday afternoon when she was hit by the Orme auto bus. The auto was coming out of the alley just south of the Scanlon house and the little girl who was crossing the alley failed to see the auto. She was brushed to one side and sustained severe injuries to her back. She was better today and nothing serious is expected to result.

—Miss Mary Ware, and Miss Marie King arrives this evening from Indianapolis for a visit with friends.

LIQUOR FIGHT IN WHITELY IS WARM

Announcement That Roadhouse
Would be Established Near Dry
Territory Causes Stir

CIRCULATE REMONSTRANCE

(By United Press.)
Columbia City, Ind., Aug. 21.—
Though Columbia City voted dry and will become saloonless September 1, Whitely county is today in the midst of the hottest wet and dry fight in the history of the county.

The fight is the outcome of the announced plan to establish a roadhouse just outside the city limits, near one of the city's public school buildings. Columbia township outside the city did not vote at recent option election and so is now wet territory.

The "drys" contend that a roadhouse outside the city limits beyond police control will be worse than a saloon within the city. The "wets" assert that they have a right to establish a place to sell liquor outside the city and that the dry remonstrance now being circulated will fail to have enough signers to prevent them carrying out their plans.

HOW TO SELL THINGS THAT ARE "FOR SALE"

Write your "For Sale" ad SIMPLY stating every detail about the article that you would want an ad to give if you were anxious to buy something of the kind yourself. Give a little thought to the "selling points" about the article, and put THEM into your ad.
Then run the ad MORE THAN ONCE, if that is necessary.
It may or may not be.

Maybe you've noticed in our advertisements
this little phrase

"Good Merchandise and Nothing Else"

It's small type, doesn't look very significant in print, but like a lot of other small things in this world it means a great deal.

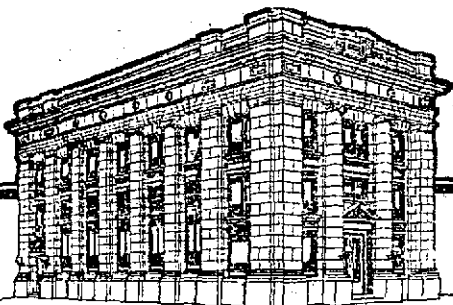

The Part That Means the Most to you is the "Nothing Else"

Good goods are plentiful, we haven't got 'em all, we want to emphasize the "NOTHING ELSE" part of it. When you want to buy something good, the way to be sure of getting it is to go where there is nothing else.

We Have a Big Stock of Dry Goods, Carpets, Coats, Suits

But mere quantity is nothing, size doesn't mean anything by itself. We don't ask our customers to take any chances in choosing between good and pretty-good merchandise. We do all the selecting before you do. "NOTHING ELSE" means that whatever you buy here and whatever you pay you can't go wrong. We are so sure of our part of it we guarantee yours for as long a time as you like.

ation and the willingness to struggle. Our civil life ought to embody these factors and we ought to apply them might and main to our industrial and commercial affairs.
"Our fathers and mothers believed in education and religion as two great factors in the development of the nation. As a result we see the church and education strongly entrenched and highly developed in this country. They were patriotic and believed in America and its form of government.
"This sense of duty which our fathers held must be transplanted into our lives. We must renew it if we are to stand foremost as a nation and a people."

TROOPS NOT TO BE WITHDRAWN NOW

High Officials Say They Will Not be Taken Out of Mexico Until Joint Commission Meets.

MILITIA MAY BE SENT HOME

(By United Press.)
Washington, August 21.—The American troops will not be withdrawn from Mexico until the joint Mexico-American commission has met and such action has been recommended by the American members, a high official said today.

The statement was made as an answer to a question regarding the action to be taken on General Funston's report that the troops might now be withdrawn without endangering the safety of the border. At the same time the belief was expressed that the militia on the border would be returned to their respective states not long after the troops are withdrawn from Mexico and the border patrol duty left entirely to the regular army.

GIRL COULD NOT WORK

How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home from work and suffer a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My mother bought it and the next month I was so well that I worked all the month without staying at home a day. I am in good health now and have told lots of girls about it."—Miss CLARICE MORIN, 22 Russell Street, Taunton, Mass.

Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs, much suffering might be avoided.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. (confidential) for free advice which will prove helpful.
